National Enquirer (filed Chron) WR - c 7 Apr 68

James Tague's story in National Enquirer. Article includes very clear photo of nick in pavement, taken by Tom Dillard of the Dallas Morning News, which should have been available to Warren Commission. Compare with very unsatisfactory ones published as exhibits: Tague Exh 1 (XXI 650), Shaneyfelt Exh 29 (XXI, 479, 480, 482).

Tague: "My eyewitness impressions given to the Warren Commission were pushed and pulled around to make them conform to the one-assassin theory. I can't go for that theory."
